DAILY CONSTITUTION.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON JUNE 8

It's a rat's rugger but the "Greasers" should make much more than upon the Texas front!

The $35,000 offered by the government for the Black Hills is now called "Snoozin' Syrup."

There are more men connected with professional base ball clubs in the United States than there are soldiers in the army.

An attorney sought to overturn a controversial law of the Republic, since he has seldom displayed much consideration for the written laws of the country.

SAN DIEGO, CAL.—A place where a fellow has to "do take care the bee" pretty lively, as is evidenced by the fact that the honey crop this season in that country will be six hundred tons.

COT. DAVID E. BOYD, a Virginian, who has been for eight or nine years superintendent of the Louisiana State University, conducted on the military system, has accepted the same position, from the Khedive of Egypt, in the Egyptian military school.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Hawkinsville Dispatch states that if the farmers of Coffee county can get—this last year—one dollar and fifteen cents a bushel for rough rice, there will be more rice than cotton grown in that county. For the poor and in the country will produce from twenty to twenty-five bushels of rough rice an acre. Poor lands in that section pay the best in rice, and we are glad of it as the latter is a food product.

PORTER—Were there any charges of malpractice against you?

COLLECTOR—Yes, sir; charges have been preferred by me. It all the less and statements which have been used against me, in trying to get me out of office, have been justly and equally well founded.

REPORTER—It is true that Colonel Jack Brown has been appointed to supercede you?

COLLECTOR—I do not know who has been appointed only from the telegrams I have seen. Some one, however, has been appointed, as official notification has been received by me of my suspension, to take effect when my successor shall have qualified and is ready to assume the duties of the office.

The Largest Circulation, City, County and State—Defies Refutation.General Traveling Agents: T. M. ACTON. H. H. PARKSATLANTA.WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1875.Minister GEORGE BOYKIN is said to be the only foreign envoy who ever became the friend of the Sultan.SHERMAN's book has the same effect on any army men that would have to set a lively gentlemanly love in a female sense all around in red.The present wave of emigration toward California is the most singular in the history of the movement of population, because there is no apparent reason for it.A Boston merchant has sent Fred Grant a $2,000 purser suit, and the president is looking around for a $30,000 official position to reward the gentleman.They have had a race in England from which seems a safe inference that the English horses are improved bottom by an infusion of Arab blood."Will come," said a candidate for Mayor of St. Louis, "next other day, while making speech, 'as safe as it is that was that house found come.'For the racehorse Kangaroo the Marquis of Hastings has paid 12,000 guineas—say $30,000. This horse now goes in front of a London cab at sixpence a mile. Victories of great families.Tax treasury department is in receipt of advices from Europe that silver is debased in Europe over a dollar or the pound, in consequence of which there is talk again of issuing the fractional pieces provided for the last congress.The trial was progressing at the last accounts. A different opinion was held at Beresford, Col. between Rev. Dr. and Charles Lester. Black passed and the parties were separated. Black passed the night this morning by firing a pistol at Lester, who fired a shot of buckshot into the breast of the former, killing him instantly.

S. K. Johnson Re-elected Superintendent.Dividends Declared.[Special to The Constitution.]ATLANTA, June 8, 1875.
The Board of Directors of the Georgia railroad met here to-day. Colonel S. K. Johnson was re-elected superintendent.The board declared a dividend of four percent, to be taken in the 1875-76 year.The board also voted to the vote to the board stand firm for Col. Johnson and eight for James Anderson of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad.GORDON INSTITUTE.Barnesville Votes to Give it $8,000 in Bonds.[Special to The Constitution.]ATLANTA, June 8, 1875.To-day Barnesville voted to issue $8,000 in bonds to the Gordon Institute. It was carried by a vote of two to one.E. B. LEWIS.Murder in Beresford.[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]ATLANTA, June 8, 1875.
A different opinion was held at Beresford, Col. between Rev. Dr. and Charles Lester. Black passed and the parties were separated. Black passed the night this morning by firing a pistol at Lester, who fired a shot of buckshot into the breast of the former, killing him instantly.*STRUGGLE IN THE DARK.The Daily Pugilist tries to put the best face possible on its appropriation of another's editorial as its own. Its argument is simply this: As I was exposed in a former attempt and suffered severe chastisement, it is not likely I would try again. That is, fear of detection and not the principle of the thing, controls its action. The Daily Pugilist states that we have editorials on varied subjects, and among others, one upon that of "grants." Very true; we have for several days past editorialized on a "grant," and a very small one at that, in the person of the Daily Pugilist, known as the Atlanta Herald.And now another white is made up to suit the convenience and wishes of two or three army officers who are in high favor at court. Gen. Meiggs is to relieve Gen. McDowell, who will be granted leave of absence to visit Europe, and on his return will be placed on the retired list. This places the late quarter-master general in command of the department of the south, with headquarters at Louisville. He will be assigned to duty according to his brevet rank. This of course lets gallants slip into the quarter-master's office, and the president is happy. What does the country think of his official grip, the thing will smash.The great St. Louis bridge is in the hands of a receiver. Taking into account the number of railroads and other things that have gone that way lately, people may expect to wake up some fine morning and find the whole country in ruins. However, according to the last reports from Washington somebody will have to take hold of the business of the administration and wind up its affairs.After a prolonged struggle with the merits of the third question, the Cincinnati Commercial sums up the whole thing in this vital sentence: "The general opinion is that the next movement in whatever quarter is holding up the country by the scabbard of the sword." But the wallachian general confesses to a fact, in the chapter of his "memoranda" he wrote to "Louisiana." He was superintended of the state military academy, at Alexandria, from 1850 to the opening of war, and as he remained in office until a few days after the ordinance of secession was passed, he then became a military officer of one of the Confederate states.Georgia Press Association.An adjourned annual meeting of the Georgia Press Association will be held at Atlanta on July 7, at 12 m. by order ofJ. H. ERTILL, President.J. R. CHRISTIAN, Secretary pro tem.CIVIL RIGHTS IN TEXAS.Judges and lawyers almost unanimously agree in declaring that the Fourteenth amendment did not justify the passage of the civil rights bill; and if it did not, nothing under the canopy of heaven could. We do not know of but one exception in the legal chorus that proclaims the validity of the measure passed by an usurping congress for political effect, and that dissonant voice comes from the third question, the Cincinnati Commercial sums up the whole thing in this vital sentence: "The general opinion is that the next movement in whatever quarter is holding up the country by the scabbard of the sword."
